

Northeastern University cordially invites all Massachusetts servicemembers, veterans, and their spouses to attend the Edge4Vets Summer Workshops

Day One

July 16, 2015 10:00AM - 3:00PM (with lunch)

Day Two will be held on July 30, 2015 1:00PM - 4:00PM

Northeastern University
Alumni Center, 6th floor
716 Columbus Ave, Boston, MA 02120

This free two-day seminar will help veterans translate strengths from the military, including strong core values and specialized skills, into tools for civilian success. In Workshop One, mentors will assist veterans in identifying and translating strengths they developed in the military. In the follow up Workshop Two, mentors will help them apply their strengths for personal success in school, work, and life.

The Edge4Vets Summer Workshop Series is offered in two parts, and this opportunity is available to all servicemembers, veterans, and military spouses in Massachusetts. Space is limited. Please RSVP by email at NUVETS@neu.edu

- ❖ Business casual attire is requested
- ❖ Please bring a copy of your resume for feedback (optional)
- ❖ Massachusetts residency is not required, all vets welcome!